THIS COUNTRY IS HIT AMIDSHIPS

Storm of Sunday Sweeps Through
Central Part But is Not Felt
in North and South.

TELEPHONE LINES DAMAGED

Home of George W. Guffin in North
Morgan Street Struck—City
Light Plant Also Damaged.

Probably the worst thunder storm of the season hit Rush county amidsthips Sunday afternoon. It was truly amidsthips because there was no severe lightning and hail in the extreme northern and extreme southern part of the county.

But in central Rush county the hail did great damage to growing crops and the wind was an able assistant in wrecking havoc and causing great losses to farmers. Very little damage from lightning was reported even though it appeared to be the worst this year. George W. Guffin's house in this city was the only thing reported struck.

The high wind and lightning caused the telephone linemen a lot of trouble today. A line in East Eleventh street and extending outside the corporation was down and almost cut Rushville off from telephonic communication with the northern half of the county.

The Mays exchange was in operation and it was found that there was a very light rain there and no hail. Milroy and New Salem were the only exchanges in southern Rush county which could be reached today. There was no hail or lightning display at all in the Milroy vicinity and at New Salem the rain was light. The Arlington exchange was out of commission. Neither could Orange, Raleigh or Falmouth be reached by telephone.

The home of George W. Guffin, 914 North Morgan street was struck by lightning Sunday afternoon during the storm that passed over this city. Considerable damage resulted but the house was not fired. A large amount of plastering was knocked off and the chimney was badly damaged. The bolt seemed to run down the chimney while none of the occupants of the house was injured they were badly frightened and more or less stunned. Mrs. Wood, a daughter of Mrs. Guffin's was in a wardrobe upstairs at the time the lightning hit. The flue forms one of the walls of the wardrobe and the plastering fell all around. Mrs. Wood but she escaped uninjured.

As a result of the storm yesterday, a wire was burned in the stator of the field coil generator at the Electric Light Plant and it will necessarily be 2 or 3 days before complete repairs can be made. Men have been busy all day in an effort to repair the damage, but it was found that additional equipment would have to be sent for and on this account the repairing will be delayed. In the meantime, the consumers are urged to be as economical as possible with their electric current, especially after 5 o'clock in the evening.

HELD FOR SELLING QUART OF WHISKEY

Elmer Littrell Charged With Sale to Lige Pea, Demands Change of
Venue in Mayor's Court.

TRIAL IS SET FOR FRIDAY

Elmer Littrell was arraigned before Mayor Bebout this morning on a charge of selling one quart of whiskey to Lige Pea. Littrell entered a plea of not guilty, asked for a change of venue and gave bond in the sum of $75. Mayor Bebout has not yet appointed the special judge to try the case, but granted the change. The trial has been set for Friday morning at nine o'clock.

Littrell was arrested Saturday night by Chief Yakey after the alleged transaction had taken place. As he was entering the jail Littrell broke away from Yakey and made a dash for his liberty. Yakey drew his revolver and called to Littrell to halt. Yakey was just on the verge of firing when Littrell stopped.

Little of the details of the sale were given out, the police preferring that they should come to light with the trial.

RICHMOND FIRM WAS LOW BIDDER

Was Expected Commissioners Would Give Geers & Behringer Contract For Court House Roof.

2 KINDS WERE SPECIFIED

The firm of Geers and Behringer of Richmond submitted the low bid before the county commissioners this afternoon for the proposed new roof for the court house. This firm's bid called for a tile roof at a total cost of $12,000 and $11,886 for a roof built with asbestos shingles. The commissioners had not awarded the contract at a late hour but were giving the bid of the Richmond firm consideration and it was expected that the award would be made for the tile roof.

The firm of Ralph R. Reeder of Indianapolis bid $13,983 for a tile roof. The William G. Andrews Decorating company of Clinton, Ia., submitted a bid of $4,700 for the repair of the old roof. This is the firm that hoped to repair the present roof and then land the contract for decorating the court house. In this way it expected to use up the appropriation for $15,000.

FOURTH HERE TO BE A BIT QUIET

Ordinance Prohibiting Fireworks
Passed in 1915 is Still in Effect
in Rushville.

PROVIDES FINES OF $10 TO $25

State Fire Marshall Calls Attention
to Reduction in Loss of Life
and Property Loss.

Tomorrow will little resemble the Fourth of July in Rushville as far as noise is concerned. The old fashioned Fourth of July in which noise played the leading part is passed as far as Rushville is concerned. The ordinance prohibiting the sale and firing of all kinds of fireworks is still in force and will likely remain so for years to come as there are not many who would care to go back to the old days. About as near to fireworks as the kids will get this year are the paper balloons. This form of fireworks, if it can be classed as such is not under the ban. In fact the paper balloons are about the only thing offered for sale at any of the local stores with a Fourth of July touch.

This will be the second year that the city has been without fireworks. The ordinance provides a penalty for the sale as well as the firing of the fireworks and there is no chance of importing any fireworks and escape the law. Along in February, 1915 the city council conceived of a "safe and sane" Fourth of July and passed the ordinance. The ordinance is similar to ones passed in many cities.

The ordinance provides "that the firing, discharging and use of all crackers, rockets, torpedoes, roman candles and other fireworks or substances designed and intended for pyrotechnical display and all pistols, guns, canes, cannon, and other appliances using blank cartridges or caps containing chlorate of potash mixture are hereby prohibited."

The ordinance provides that the sale shall be prohibited and provides a fine of not less than $10 or more than $25 if any of the provisions are violated. In case of the dealers, each day they shall sell or harbor fireworks shall constitute a separate offense.

Mayor Bebout and the police will see that the law is obeyed. The ordinance provides that the only way fireworks can be fired here is by a public display and then under the auspices of some person competent to handle the display. The consent of the council must first be obtained before a public display of fire works will be permitted.

"Indiana's fire record on the Fourth of July in the last three years shows conclusively that fire prevention prevents," says the state fire marshal. He called attention to the following facts as set forth in the report of the department's activities for 1915:

"The number of fire losses from fireworks used in Independence Day celebration has decreased each year since the establishment of the office. The figures are 49 in 1913, 28 in 1914 and 10 in 1915. The number for 1915 includes those caused by fireworks on Saturday preceding and Monday succeeding Sunday, the Fourth of July."

This result is brought about by the exercise of greater care by individuals and by the stricter supervision over the sale and use of fireworks by municipalities of the state. Each year the department has asked special watchfulness from fire chiefs, police superintendents, and other city officials by letter, and

BRITISH GAINS BEING CHECKED

Arrival of German Reinforcement

Temporarily Holds up Allied
Drive For Present.

FRENCH CONTINUE THOUGH

Score Most Important Success of
Twenty-Four Hours in Taking
3-Mile Enemy Trench.

(By United Press.)

London, July 3.—The arrival of German reinforcements has temporarily checked the British gains north of the Somme except at one point but the French continue to smash back the German line south of the river.

These facts are indicated in the official dispatches from the German and French war offices this afternoon and by French dispatches from headquarters of the British army.

The French last night scored the most important success of the last 24 hours of the great allied offensive. They battered in the German lines on a three mile front directly south of the Somme.

London, July 3.—Under a blazing July sun the allied armies are pushing on across the rolling farm lands of the Somme region today in what is rapidly developing into the greatest battle in the history of the world.

The fighting not only is growing more intense with the arrival of German reserves but threatens to spread along the whole of the 110-mile front from the Somme to the sea.

The British artillery has been pounding the German line in Flanders with the most intense fire for 48 hours, said a Rotterdam dispatch today. The sound of ships' guns has been heard along the Flanders coast. Supposedly British monitors have joined in the mighty symphony of artillery whose rumble may even be heard across the channel in London.

FRENCH TAKE VILLAGE.

(By United Press.)

Paris, July 3.—In a brilliant night attack that threw the Germans back on a wide front, French troops last night captured the village of Herbecourt, advancing to within five miles of the heart of Peronne, one of the immediate objectives of the allied offensive. The advance was made on a three-mile front.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 3.—Three marines were wounded and one killed in two fights with revolutionists in San Domingo, the navy department was informed today by radio. The dispatch was dated Saturday.

THIS SPLASH WEEK.

New York, July 3.—This is splash week here. The drowning of 485 non-swimmers in New York last year led Borough President Marcus M. Marks to declare this Splash week to encourage everyone to learn to swim. Hundreds of experts will give free instructions and exhibitions at the municipal pools all week.

FIVE HURT IN CAR CRASH

Two Collide in Indianapolis Today
When Brakes Fail to Work

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 3.—Five persons were injured, three seriously, when a Columbus Avenue street car crashed into a Brightwood car shortly before noon today. It is said the brakes on the Columbia Avenue car failed to work. Both cars were crowded and witnesses said it was a miracle there were no fatalities.

Head of Militia Division, Named
by the President.

PERSHING LOGICAL CHOICE

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 3.—Brigadier-General Albert L. Miles, head of the militia division of the army, was nominated today by President Wilson to be major general.

Though Mills was the ranking brigadier-general many persons in the war department was expecting General Pershing would be the next major-general because of his work in Mexico.

Col. George Dodd, who established a record by keeping the advance column of the punitive expedition in Mexico, was promoted to brigadier-general.

SUFFERED STROKE IN MARCH

(By United Press.)

New York, July 3.—Mrs. Hetty Green, known as the "richest woman in the world," died today at her home here.

Mrs. Green, who was in her 83d year, had been ill for several weeks. It was reported a week ago that she suffered a stroke of apoplexy in March. This was declared to be slight however and Mrs. Green's physician said she was doing as well as could be expected considering her advanced years.

WILL NOT PRESS FIRST CHIEF FOR ANSWER NOW.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 3.—For the moment the United States government will not press Carranza to answer its demands for a statement as to his attitude on Mexican-American relations. The state department announced this today, saying the situation is in status quo for the present, especially in view of the relief of tension by Carranza's release of prisoners at Chihuahua City.

CENSORSHIP LID IS PUT ON TODAY

Arrival of Troop Trains Along Border is Shrouded in Mystery
and Officers Are Silent.

SPIES ARE BEING WATCHED

Camping of Lid is Done for Purpose
of Preventing Carranzistas
Knowing Truth.

(By United Press.)

San Antonio, Texas, July 3.—A veil of censorship has been drawn over the movement of national guardsmen by General Funston on orders from the war department. Arrival of troops trains in this and other cities near the border is shrouded in mystery which bids fair to continue until all of these state troops ordered south under call have reached their stations.

The Seventh Illinois infantry arrived here today and went into camp at Fort Houston. The guardsmen are standing the heat better and no illness has been reported.

(By United Press.)

Columbus, N. M., July 3.—Militia movements were taking place along the border today under the eyes of spies and secret service agents of the Carranza government, it was believed. Explaining the strict censorship which does not permit mention of the regiments of positions of national guardsmen detained here, Captain Van Schaick said:

"The censorship of militia movements was inaugurated to prevent Carranza agents on this side of the border obtaining information."

During the night long troop trains passed through here distributing militiamen to many points. Schaick, together with several American secret service men is watching the activity of several suspected Carranza spies.

IS STILL GAME OF "WATCHFUL WAITING."

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., July 3.—It was still a game of "watchful waiting" today at Camp Ralston where the Indiana National Guard is mobilizing. Captain John J. Toffey, chief mustering officer, could give little information as to when the Indiana troops would start for the border.

Leaves of absence were being refused members of the artillery battalion and 50 additional cars were placed on the Fort Harrison siding, indicating that National Guard officers were expecting orders to move any time.

CARRANZA REPLY IS NOT READY FOR DELIVERY.

(By United Press.)

Mexico City, July 3.—The foreign office today was unable to make any definite statement as to when Carranza's reply to the United States note would be presented.

Friday it was stated upon apparently reliable authority that the reply was practically completed and would be delivered within a few hours. The following day the statement was made that the note probably would be ready by Monday night. Today the best information was that the final draft would not be made for several days.

ALONG ENTIRE BORDER.

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, July 3.—Militiamen swarmed along the entire lengths of the Mexican border today ready for service. New camps are going up from Brownsville to Nogales.

MARKET NEWS SERVICE BEGINS

Field Men of Department of Agriculture Collect Information on Perishable Crops

ARE ALSO DISTRIBUTING IT

Data Deals With Shipments and is Regarded as of Immense Value by Shippers

Washington, July 1.—Field men of the Office of Markets and Rural Organization have left Washington to inaugurate the Department of Agriculture's Market News Service for perishable crops this year. Branch offices have been established in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, and Kansas City, to collect and distribute information in regard to marketing conditions. Other men are stationed in the producing sections in Florida, Louisiana and Texas where onions, tomatoes and strawberries are already being shipped in earload lots to the big markets.

By collecting in this way information concerning conditions in producing districts and marketing centers, the Market News Service of the Department of Agriculture, is designed to aid both shippers of and dealers in perishable crops. The information collected is sent out free by telegraph to all those who are sufficiently interested to pay the telegraph charges and by mail to those who do not care to incur this expense, but have a good reason for wishing the reports. Each of the field men in the marketing and producing centers acts as a distributor of this information and, in addition, it is sent out direct from Washington.

The first reports for this season have been sent out. They will deal with earload shipments, receipts and general conditions for the onion, tomato, and strawberry crops. Other crops will follow as the season advances, the service being designed to include a total of 16 altogether. In the opinion of marketing specialists this work, which was begun last year, has already demonstrated its value in preventing the glutting of markets, in securing more profitable distribution for perishable crops, and in avoiding delay and waste through unnecessary diversions of earload shipments enroute.

CARRIES COIN WHOSE FLIP NAMED PORTLAND, OREGON

(By United Press.)
San Francisco, Cal., July 3.—As a pocket-piece, F. W. Pettygrove of San Francisco carries a copper cent, dated 1835, which was flipped to decide whether Portland, Ore., should be named "Portland" or "Boston."

It was Mr. Pettygrove's father and Amos L. Lovejoy who did the flipping.

It happened in the summer of 1845. Each man held out for the principal city of his native state.

"Best two out of three," said Lovejoy.

First it fell "Portland." Then it fell "Boston."

On the third toss Portland, Oregon, became the namesake of Portland, Maine. But Portland, Oregon, has long since outgrown her god-mother in size.

Fourth of July Tetanus.

Back in 1905 there were 104 deaths in the United States from Fourth of July tetanus, this figure representing about the average annual mortality. In 1914, as a result of the institution of better prophylactic treatment by physicians and widespread agitation for a safe and sane Fourth, the number was reduced to 3. A year ago the U. S. Public Health Service expected and predicted that every youngster in the United States would be safe from this disease, basing its estimate on what had already been accomplished. When the returns came in it was found that a boy down in Maine had been injured, developed tetanus and died. That single fatality was only one among several hundred thousand occurring in the United States during 1915 but it resulted from Fourth of July tetanus or lockjaw, a preventable disease, and was therefore an unnecessary death. The loss of this boy makes it necessary to again disseminate information regarding this wholly avoidable infection.

The blank cartridge wound is the great cause of Fourth of July tetanus, but injuries from crackers and firearms are at times responsible. When driven into the tissues the wadding carries with it innumerable bacilli. If these be tetanus bacilli the poisonous product of toxins resulting from their multiplication produce the disease. Tetanus bacilli thrive only in the absence of oxygen. It is for this reason that the physician enlarges the wound of entrance and after removing all foreign material dresses the injury in such a manner that development of the organisms is inhibited. The order to accomplish this it is usually necessary to administer an anaesthetic. Antitetanic serum is of great value as a prophylactic and it should invariably be given in injuries of this character.

Parents should realize that Fourth of July tetanus is easy to prevent but extremely difficult to cure, the disease being attended with a mortality of more than 95 per cent. No blank cartridge wound is too trivial to receive careful medical attention. However slight the injury may appear summon a competent physician who will at once institute the necessary prophylactic measures. Reliance upon home treatment may prove disastrous and result in the needless sacrifice of life.

A Leader Learning.

On the eve of a political campaign, President Wilson, referring to the European war says: "We are participants, whether we would or not, in the life of the world. The interests of all nations are our own also. We are partners with the rest. What affects mankind is inevitably our affair as well as the affair of the nation of Europe and Asia."

But in his address to Congress, December 8, 1914, when he declared that the country had been misinformed on the subject of preparedness, Mr. Wilson, advocating a "citizenry trained and accustomed to arms," said: "More than this, proposed at this time, permit me to say, would mean merely that we had lost our self-possession, that we had been thrown off our balance by a war with which we have nothing to do, whose causes can not touch us."

Commenting on the fact that the Mayor of Connersville has announced that he will marry any old maids and bachelors who desire to have the knot tied free of charge during the centennial next week, the Muncie Press says that not so many are caught by such fascinating promises because people have learned nowadays that marrying is just like buying an automobile—it's not the first cost but the upkeep.

Because he resembles President Wilson so closely, the Rev. Arthur S. Henderson has determined he will not leave his home town of Topeka, Kansas, until Wilson ceases to be a celebrity, and if he keeps his determination, he may have to spend the rest of his days in Topeka because even former presidents may be called celebrities.

President Wilson criticises Republicans because they are "backward looking men." It is no wonder that a Democrat dislikes anyone who looks back upon the record of the Wilson administration.

PULPITS TAKE UP CAMPAIGN

From Many Churches Sunday Doctrine of Preparedness is Preached to the Masses.

KNOWN AS CITIZENSHIP DAY

Bureau of Naturalization Has Had 200,000 Candidates For Citizenship Since October.

Washington, July 3.—Throughout the country, from the pulpits of churches of all denominations, the doctrine of Citizenship Preparedness was proclaimed yesterday. The clergy of the United States, with remarkable unanimity, adopted the appeal of the Bureau of Naturalization of the U. S. Department of Labor that a citizenship sermon be delivered on the morning of July 2 of this year, a date selected because of its close proximity to Independence Day, which means so much to all American citizens. The gospel of good citizenship was enunciated in cities and hamlets, to large and prosperous congregations and small, struggling bands of worshippers alike—a universal proclamation from the pulpit of the necessity of instilling American ideals and patriotism in the minds of foreign residents.

It is the desire of the Bureau of Naturalization that one Sunday in each year be set aside as Citizenship Sunday, on which will be preached at the morning service in every church in the country a sermon on citizenship. This proposition has been placed before the churches of all denominations, and the responses to this feature of the Bureau's activities have been highly gratifying and indicative of the establishment of such a day as a permanent institution. It was with a realization that the churches could aid materially in forwarding the good citizenship movement and inspires to immediate and aggressive action communities which have not already joined this great educational movement, that the Bureau of Naturalization made this appeal, and the results show a pronounced success.

In approximately 650 cities and towns, located in 45 States of the Union, the public school authorities, in co-operation with the Bureau of Naturalization of the U. S. Department of Labor, established evening schools for the instruction of their foreign-born population. In all of these cities and towns the intention is to reopen the night schools at the beginning of the fall term. Advices have been received from other places where, for one reason or another, they have as yet been unable to join in this movement, that the public school authorities have determined to open night schools for alien instruction at the beginning of the next scholastic year.

Great results have already been accomplished the greater are expected. The Bureau of Naturalization since the 1st of last October has sent the names of approximately 200,000 candidates for citizenship and their wives to the public school authorities of the country. It has also sent personal letters to all of these to induce them to enter the public schools. It has prepared an Outline Course in Citizenship, thousands of copies of which have been sent to public school teachers. It has also prepared a Syllabus of the Naturalization Law, which it has sent out, with copies of preliminary naturalization forms, to aid teachers in the instruction of candidates for citizenship. The co-operation of the public schools with the National Government has come to stay, and the next scholastic year will show a tremendous increase all over the country.

The Bureau of Naturalization has perfected its plan for a citizenship convention of the public school teachers, superintendents and other prominent educators of the United States, which will be held in this city during the week beginning July 10 for the purpose of exhibiting the results of the work of the foreigners in the night schools throughout the

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Texas. — "After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get your medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ills, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.

Barnabas C. Hobbs.

Barnabas C. Hobbs receives a place among Indiana's hundred great for his work in education. The State Normal school at Terre Haute owes much to Hobbs, who was a member of its first board of trustees.

As president of Earlham college from 1843 to 1851 Hobbs made another contribution to the state of Indiana which was increased during his three years as superintendent of public instruction from 1868 to 1871. As head of the state school system Hobbs provided for the education of colored children and was among the first to inaugurate graded schools.

Hobbs was born near Salem, Ind., and was liberally educated in the private schools at Cincinnati College.

WATSON SPEAKS AT COLORED MEMORIAL

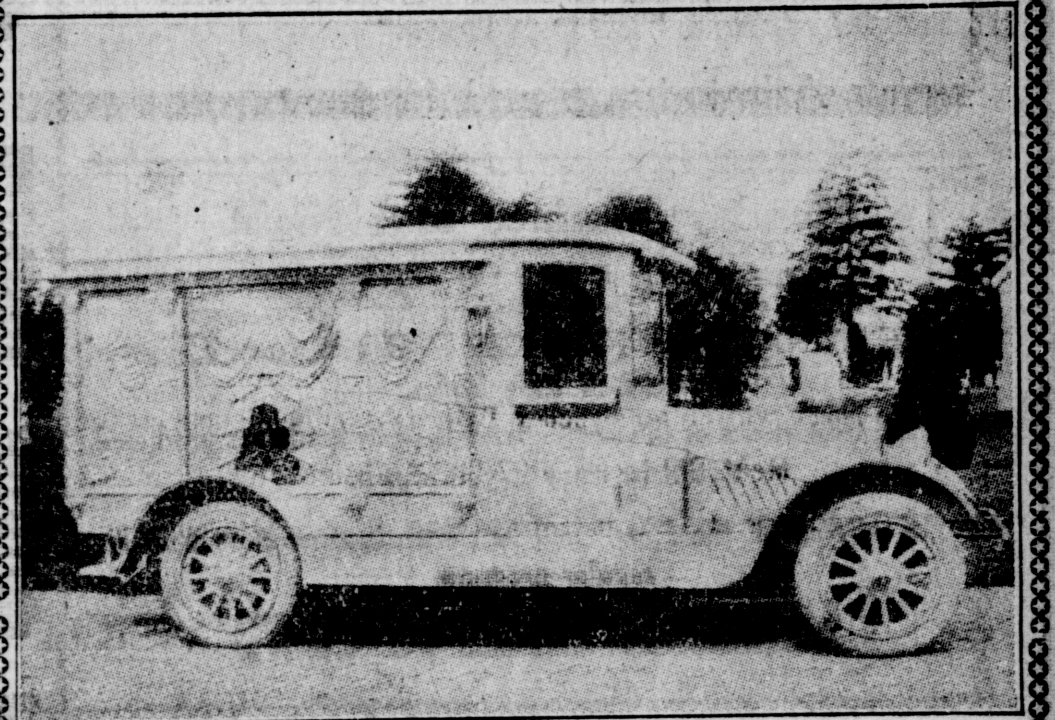

Lauds Colored Troops For Part They Took in Recent Battle at Carrizal, Mexico.

IS HELD IN INDIANAPOLIS

The valor of negro troopers in the fight between Carranza soldiers and American cavalrymen at Carrizal was praised last night at a memorial service for those who died in that fight, held at Allen Temple, Broadway, near Tenth street, says the Indianapolis Star. James E. Watson, nominee for United States senator, and the Rev. E. A. Clark, pastor of Allen Chapel, were the speakers. Gurley Brewer, negro editor, presided.

Both speakers praised the negro troopers for the part they took in the fight, and declared that their valor will have a place of honor in the nation's history. Mr. Watson declared that those who died in the unprovoked attack were murdered by the Carranza soldiers. He referred not only to the Carrizal incident, but of the bravery of negro soldiers generally, being familiar with the conduct of troops in the Tenth Cavalry and in the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth infantry regiment. The Rev. Mr. Clark spoke along similar lines.

The meeting was the first memorial that has been held in the fight. The pastor of Allen Chapel urged the necessity for colored citizens to respond to the call when word is sent for men to go to the colors and referred to the importance of patriotic action on the part of all citizens.

Supper—Hash, beans, with tomato sauce, and bread.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, July 3.—Twenty-five and ninety-nine hundredths cents—that is what it costs to feed each militiaman at Fort Harrison one day. And the men, used to the cooking of mother or wife, are not kicking.

"Beans! Yes, we have beans occasionally but not often," said one "rookie" when asked if the state of Indiana had yet been able to secure any of the traditional diet for army men. "I am glad," continued the "rookie," "that there is a war in Europe that has consumed pretty nearly all of last year's bean crop. Maybe Carranza will decide to stop his raids and we will be home before another crop is harvested."

"Mess," the soldier term for food is the least of the guardman's troubles. Very few have any kicks to make about the food that is being handed out. But practically all of the companies have a company fund, raised by the citizens in the town from which they came, which they use to piece out the 25 cent a day fare. Ice cream, lemonade, butter, pie, cake and fresh fruit are some of the things that find their way to the company tables by way of the company fund.

The company from Fort Wayne, one of the largest companies in camp, has a fund of nearly $1,200, subscribed by Fort Wayne citizens after ex-State Senator Stephen Fleming had started it with a subscription of $200.

Another source of food are the boxes from home. Every visitor to camp carries out a heavy basket and carries home an empty basket. Food comes by parcel post and by express. A guardsman in Company I, the Indiana University company, expressed a desire for cherry pie the other day. The next day he received eight cherry pies, gifts from his co-ed friends.

Militiamen from small towns are often heard to express a wish for a drink of water from the old town pump and out of the old common dipper, which the last Indiana legislature last sent into history. The water pipes at the camp are laid on top of the ground and on a hot sunny day the cooks need not heat the water in which they wash dishes.

At Camp Ralston headquarters today it was estimated that it is costing approximately one thousand dollars to feed the 4,000 men in camp. Officers pay for their own food.

PICNIC IS POSTPONED.

MID-WEST MOTOR BOAT RACES OPEN

Journey to Scene by Cruising up Mississippi.

OVER 100 BOATS ENTERED

St. Paul, Minn., July 3.—A large number of the boatmen contestants in the races and delegates to the meeting of the Mississippi Valley Power Boat association who arrived here today for the opening of the meet, made the trip from their home ports to the regatta city by cruising up the Mississippi river. The many tributaries to the Mississippi served as good pathways for the boats—and overland shipping difficulties were eliminated.

Races began today and activities will continue for a week. On Wednesday the annual meeting will be held.

Delegates from seven states, representing nearly fifty motor boat clubs with a membership of 8,000 are here.

About a hundred speed boats are darting about in the Mississippi river awaiting the word to start in the big ninth annual regatta of the Mississippi Valley Power Boat association.

"Miss Detroit," a cup winner from the Michigan city whose name it boasts, went 30 miles this afternoon against "Miss Minneapolis," a boat of exactly the same dimensions. Both were guaranteed for 55 miles an hour. Both were built by the same concern. "St. Paul," which was to represent this city in the race, was not completed in time for use.

COLLEGE RIVALRY EVEN IN WAR TIME

Indiana and Purdue Companies Carry Rivalry to Fort Benjamin Harrison—I. U. Has Band.

SONGS AND YELLS GIVEN

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, July 3.—College rivalry lasts even in "war-time." The rivalry between the different regiments or between the various companies of the Indiana national guard does not begin to compare with the rivalry between members of the guard from the two state universities—Indiana and Purdue.

There are more than 120 Indiana University students or graduates in Company I and in the Second Regiment band. Battery B. of the artillery battalion is composed of 160 Purdue students.

Scarcely an evening passes in which the "Old Indiana" is not answered by "Hail Purdue." Then will come the Purdue yell to be answered by the Indiana "series." In the matter of songs the band attempts to be neutral playing both Purdue and Indiana songs.

A parade with more than six hundred I. U. supporters in line marched across the space separating the infantry camp from the artillery battery one evening.

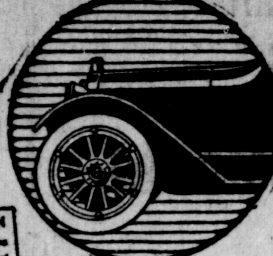

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS

It used to be the custom—and may be now on remote farms—for the housewife to use her own knowledge, good sense and judgment in dealing with sickness in the family before sending for the doctor, unless in serious emergencies. After that, when there was no immediate danger she would talk with her neighbors, women who had had experience with sickness.

Any woman who suffers from ailments peculiar to her sex will do well to ask her neighbors. She should easily find one who has used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Just ask her about it!

LAWYERS DO AWAY WITH PESTIFEROUS FLY.

It would appear, from what we know of the life history of the common housefly and from what remedial experimentation has already been carried on, that it is perfectly feasible for cities and towns to so greatly reduce the numbers of these annoying and dangerous insects as to render them of comparatively slight account. The health departments of most cities have the authority to abate nuisances dangerous to health, and it is easy for the health authorities of any city to formulate rules concerning the construction and care of stables and the keeping and disposal of manure which, if enforced, will do away with the housefly nuisance.

Every year brings forth new and varied diversions, tempting to those wishing to spend the holiday of the Fourth in the very jolliest way. So very many places are there to go this year and so many new motors to go in that very few cling to the old-fashioned picnic, but have planned all sorts of novel trips. The picnics which have been planned promise to be ideal ones, with the consent of the weather man, thanks to the congeniality of the groups and the choice of the country spot where the picnickers will spend the day.

The members of the Wi-Hub club and their families are to have an all day affair at the Innis cottage, west of the city. There will be about 30 in the party altogether.

Tomorrow marks only the start of a merry party for another group, when at the Green Cottage on the river northeast of the city they spend the Fourth and the five days thereafter. In this party are the Misses Lois Reeves, Esther Anderson, Dorothy Mulno, Dorothy Sparks, Kathryn Guffin and Kathryn Wooden. Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Sparks will act as chaperones.

Honoring her attractive guest, Miss Josephine MacNeill, of Winchester, Ky., Miss Beatrice Reeves is entertaining tomorrow at her home in North Main street, with a pitch-in dinner and

FIGHT FOR COMMUNITY FORUM

Make wide the doorway of the school
Around whose sill the millions wait,
The cradle of the common rule,
The forum of a stronger state.

Make broad the bar, and big appear
The questions clamorous to be tried,
And let the final judges hear,
Themselves, the causes they decide.

Write bold the text for age to read
The lesson not discerned by youth;
And raise the altar of a creed
Whose only article is Truth.

Though fair and dear the ancient mold
Wherein the burning thought was cast,
Pour not the New World's glowing gold
Into the patterns of the past.

Whatever channels lead apart
The currents of the lives of men,
The blood that left the Common Heart
Shall leap with common pulse again.

Wendall Phillips Stafford.
Washington, July 3.—Miss Margaret Wilson can feel she has the law with her in fight to establish community forums throughout the country.

The above poem read by her at a forum meeting here had that significance, since it was written by Justice Wendell Phillips Stafford of the District Supreme Court.

This court appoints the very school board that has refused to allow the use of District Public schools as meeting places. In a way, the learned Justice administered a rebuke to the school board.

HELEN KELLER MAKES APPEALS FOR WAR RELIEF.

Helen Keller has made the following appeal for war relief:

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America has sent broadcast through the land appeals for systematic and continuous giving to the war relief funds in this country.

No victims of war need our help more than the men blinded in battle whose affliction will end only with death. Nor can any derive more permanent benefit from immediate aid.

The B. F. B. Permanent Blind Relief War Fund, which is to be the A. B. F. B. (American, British, French, Belgian) if we are unhappily forced into war with Mexico, is one of the many agencies that benefit from the Federal Council's appeal.

I came to New York as the guest of this fund. I visited its booths at the Allied Bazaar and its headquarters at 590 Fifth Avenue. I saw for myself the great work the B. F. B. is doing, and felt the fine Christian spirit that inspires it.

I met a man who had been blinded by a shell. He was not downcast, but enthusiastically at work. For the fund had taught him, as it plans to teach thousands of others, a gainful trade.

When I saw him, I thought of his unfortunate fellows, struck blind in an unknown, black world, useless, their lives and strength a burden to them. And I thought of my sympathetic, kindly countrymen, and felt that they would be glad to help the B. F. B. restore to these helpless men lives of happy usefulness.

As an officer of this fund it gives me the greatest satisfaction to know that the entire expenses of the organization are defrayed by the executive committee, so that all contributions are going directly to aid the blind.

I appeal to the people through the Federal Council in behalf of the sufferers in all countries—little children, widows and the maimed and crippled victims of war. Their need is urgent, all aid is precious; we cannot give enough. I appeal to all Americans to make their charity broad and universal, and to give bountifully.

But most of all, I feel the misfortunes of the war's blind. And I ask your help especially for them.

Pathe offers the five act Gold Rooster Play, "The Love Trail" at the Gem today. It is adapted from Richard Dehan's novel "The Dop Doctor" and is said to be a very entertaining film production. Fred Paul and the beautiful little English actress Miss Agnes Glynne are featured. It is a romance of the English-Boer war and Pathe guarantees it to be one of the best of their Gold Rooster Plays. Tomorrow matinee and night the first episode of the great Universal serial "Peg O' the Ring" will be shown. Grace Cunard and Francis Ford, the stars of two preceding successful Universal serials, namely, "Lucile Love" and "The Broken Coin" are featured. It is a story of circus life in which wild animals, and the like, are shown to excellent advantage.

The Princess will show the feature picture "Barbara Frietche" for the program tonight. It is a thrilling drama in five reels in which little Mary Miles Minter is featured. The picture was adopted from Whittier's immortal poem of the same name and the play by Clyde Fitch. The picture tells a thrilling story of Civil War days and in addition to Mary Miles Minter there appears in the case Mrs. Whiffen, Guy Combs, Anne Q. Nilsson and others. Tomorrow, matinee and night the Princess offers the feature "The Yellow Passport" in which Clara Kimball Young is featured. The persecution of a beautiful and noble-spirited girl by the Russian secret police forms the basis of the plot of "The Yellow Passport." In one scene there is a thrilling realistic reproduction of the Jewish massacre at Kiev, Russia, by Cossacks.

SOME FLY DONT'S.

Don't allow flies in your house. Don't permit them near your food, especially milk.

Don't buy foodstuffs where flies are tolerated.

Don't have feeding places where flies can load themselves with eggs from typhoid or dysenteric patients.

Don't allow your fruits and confections to be exposed to the swarms of flies.

Don't let flies crawl over the baby's mouth and swarm upon the nipple of its nursing bottle.

Clean Up your premises inside and out. Then see that the community does the same.

Strike at the root of the evil. The housefly breeds in horse manure, kitchen offal and the like. Dispose of these materials in such a way that the housefly cannot propagate.

Screen all windows and doors, and insist that your grocer, butcher, baker and every one from whom you buy foodstuffs does the same. There is more health in a house well screened than in many a doctor's visit.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together. And until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. A RUSHVILLE INTERVIEW

Mr. Priest Tells His Experience

The following brief account of an interview with a Rushville man over five years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3rd St., Rushville, says, "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. It started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys; dizzy spells followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

The above statement was given on March 9, 1910, and on Aug. 26, 1915, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Priest has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—(Adv.)

from the public through the newspapers.

The loss of life also shows a gratifying decrease. Thirty lives were lost in the United States last year on Independence Day, and forty in 1914.

So dangerous is the toy balloon that some states have entirely prohibited its use. The most serious fire in Indiana last year during the celebration of the Fourth occurred at Terre Haute, where one of these gas-filled and inflammable balloons fell on a manufacturing plant. The damage was $12,000 to the property of the Terre Haute Paper Co.

"Every city in the state should pass an ordinance prohibiting the use of the toy balloon," says the State Fire Marshal. "This action should be taken now while the people are interested and before the merchants stock up for next year."

That cities are liable in damage when property or life is injured during a fireworks display conducted without their approval, was decided by the Supreme Court when it affirmed a judgment against the city of Bloomington. A girl injured by a skyrocket received the damages.

INDIANA'S CELEBRATION OF THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

Indianapolis—With war clouds nearer than any Fourth of July since the days of '98, Indiana will rebound with patriotism tomorrow. No orders need be issued for citizens to hang out Old Glory for she has been flying to the breeze since President Wilson issued his orders mobilizing the militia.

The state capital will observe tomorrow in a safe and sane way. The largest crowd that ever visited Fort Benjamin Harrison is predicted.

Kokomo—Former subjects of other lands will be given a lesson in patriotism tomorrow when lectures on American history and government and a historical motion picture show will be given by the Federated Missions.

Franklin—Johnson county will kill two birds with one stone by observing the Fourth tomorrow with a centennial pageant on the Franklin College campus. Each township will give an episode.

Alexandria—Athletics will feature Alexandria's celebration of the Fourth tomorrow. Baseball games and field meets are the principal events on the day's program.

Muncie—Harness races at the Fair Grounds will attract Muncie people celebrating the Fourth tomorrow. Single G, the sensational pacer, is scheduled as a starter.

Washington—Fireworks, athletic contests, and baseball will be the means used to entertain Washington citizens tomorrow.

Elwood—With Sunday horse races taboo, Elwood will concentrate tomorrow on a big day of racing at the Fair Grounds.

Newcastle—The first of a series of golf tournaments at the Newcastle Country Club will be played tomorrow.

—after you clean them.

You will find, in all probability, an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding between the crevices. YOUR DENTIFRICE does not FULLY CLEAN! Loss of teeth is caused usually by one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or decay, both of which develop, as a rule, only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

SENRECO, the recently discovered formula of a dental specialist, is two-fold in its action. First, it REALLY CLEANS, embodying specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Second, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Yet it is perfectly safe, containing neither injurious chemicals nor hard grit.

Persons who passed Capp's farm south of Rushville yesterday commented on the fact that it looked like an Illinois farm. THE MOSQUITO THAT HELPED RUIN ROME IS AFTER YOU TOO.

(By Samuel G. Dixon, M. D., LL. D., Pennsylvania Commissioner of Health.)

Malaria is said to have hastened the downfall of Rome.

The mosquitoes which transmitted it were more deadly to the inhabitants of the Imperial city than their barbarian enemies. Much also has been written of similar injury to Greece in yet earlier times.

At least two diseases are carried by certain species of mosquitoes; malaria and yellow fever. All species are disagreeable pests.

Have you unwittingly permitted mosquitoes to breed about your house or grounds? Even one old tomato can half filled by the spring rains makes an ideal breeding ground. It is surprising how many hidden pools one can find around a place if you really go on a hunt.

Not infrequently drain pipes become clogged and then tin roofs and gutters afford an unsuspected breeding place for thousands of mosquitoes.

Communities that suffer from these pests should co-operate to campaign effectively against them.

Even the smallest adjacent pools should be filled up or ditched and drained. If these are too large to be filled they should be treated with petroleum. This floats atop the water and kills the mosquito larvae by shutting off the atmosphere. When the wind causes a movement of the water which breaks up the oil coating it must be re-oiled. Swamps can be similarly treated.

A survey should be made of all premises. Rain water barrels should be covered. Tin cans or discarded vessels on rubbish piles should be perfected, smashed flat or buried.

SHOT WITH OUR AMMUNITION

American Troops Who Met Death in Mexico Killed With "Made in America" Bullets.

MUNITIONS WERE SHIPPED

Millions of Dollars Worth of Ammunition and Firearms Supplied to the Mexicans.

Washington, July 3.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington Headquarters:

"Shot with ammunition 'Made in America'. Such was the fate of the American troopers who met their death at the hands of the Carranzistas. 'Peace, Prosperity, and Preparedness' is the campaign slogan of the Democratic party. And 'fair-eyed peace' was killed at Carrizal. It was the logical outcome of the most vacillating policy recorded in the annals of American history. Carranza dared because Wilson dared not.

"Prosperity?" It is soaked in the blood of millions of Europe's slain, and Mexico upon whom now we war has added her mite to it. Four billion dollars worth of exports have been sent to Europe during the 20 months of war, and 31 classes of those exports, indispensable in modern warfare, made up over 50 per cent of the total. That is Democratic prosperity.

"Preparedness? For three years this country has been on the verge of war with Mexico; for two years Europe has been running mad. The administration, when taxed with its lethargy in regard to preparedness, replied through its chief spokesman, Woodrow Wilson, 'The country has been misinformed. We have not been negligent of National defense'. Yet, today we have no aeroplanes for scout duty in Mexico, and aeroplanes were invented in the United States. We have not sufficient horses for our cavalry, and America is the greatest horse-raising country in the world. Our machine guns are pitifully few in number, and the machine gun is an American invention. And on these three factors must we rely most heavily in a war with Mexico.

"We are also told that there is a dearth of ammunition for our troops. But what have we done for Mexico in the meantime? On March 14, 1912, President Taft placed an embargo on ammunition and guns going into Mexico from the United States. On February 3, 1914, this embargo was taken off by President Wilson. On April 21, 1914, at the time of the Vera Cruz occupation, Mr. Wilson restored the embargo, and on September 9, 1914, he changed his mind and again lifted it. On October 21, 1915, when the A. B. C. Conference was in session, or soon thereafter, he again restored the embargo on ammunition and guns consigned to everyone in Mexico but Carranza and his followers. This was done to aid the irreconcilable Carranza against Wilson's old ally, Villa.

"During the fiscal year 1914, Mexico purchased of us $750,000 worth of cartridges, 5,560,000 pounds of dynamite, 129,000 pounds of gunpowder, $488,000 worth of firearms, and $69,000 worth of other explosives. During the fiscal year 1915, the Mexicans were supplied with $3, 000,000 worth of American cartridges, 2,400,000 pounds of dynamite, 36,000 pounds of gunpowder, $1, 280,000 worth of firearms, and $116,250 worth of other explosives. On April 11, at a time when the Mexican situation was most acute, 332,000 pounds of ammunition left Laredo, Texas, consigned to Carranza, and on April 14, a dispatch from Douglas, Arizona, stated: 'The State Department has issued a permit to the de facto government of Mexico to pass 1,000,000 pounds of small ammunition across the line to Agua Prieta, during the next few days. The ammunition is now en route to the border.' These are two instances which were reported by the press, and there is no telling how many more escaped notice.

PROHI PARTY TO "GET TOGETHER"

Conference Called For St. Paul July

18 at Which Time Proposed

Action Will be Discussed.

MAY MEAN PASSING AS PARTY

Program Includes Discussion as to Whether Third Party is Necessary to Get Prohibition.

Chicago, July 3.—Leaders of the Prohibition party and members of the committee of sixty which made an unsuccessful attempt to get a Prohibition declaration in the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties, have called a "Get-together" conference, to be held in St. Paul, Minn., July 18, the day preceding the National Prohibition convention.

Fifteen men and women of all political faiths will receive invitations to this conference. The object of the conference is to effect an amalgamation of the moral reform forces of the country into a political party which shall have as its central platform plank national prohibition, but which will also advocate a whole category of governmental reforms and progressive legislation.

The program as announced includes free-for-all discussions relating to prohibition as a dominant issue, whether a third party must be elected in order to obtain prohibition, what name such a party should bear, the possibility of securing action through the various parties now in existence and the relationship of prohibition to other reforms.

Among those who will lead discussions are Hon. E. N. Foss, three times governor of Massachusetts,

FORTY WAYS and More to CALIFORNIA and the North Coast

is the title of an attractive booklet issued by the CHICAGO & NORTH WESTERN RY., which outlines in concise form more than forty different attractive routes from Chicago to California and the North Coast Country and shows plainly by a series of outline maps how you may plan a vacation trip to see the scenic wonders of the West, and visit the localities most interesting to those seeking rest and recreation.

Free on application to N. M. BREEZE, G. A., 434 Walnut St., Cincinnati, O.

Hon. Wm. E. Sulzer, former governor of New York; Hon. J. P. St. John, who as the republican governor of Kansas signed the prohibition law and afterward left the G. O. P. and ran for president on the Prohibition ticket, and Hon. Charles H. Randall, of the ninth district of California, first congressman ever elected by the prohibition party.

The chairman of the conference has not been fully determined upon, the desire being to have for this position a man of national reputation who is not a party prohibitionist. Prominent Progressive leaders are being considered, including Victor Murdock, recent national chairman; Raymond Robins, who was chairman of the Progressive Allen White, noted Progressive leader of Kansas. Former Governor Oswald West of Oregon has also been suggested as Chairman of the get-together conference.

THIS COUNTRY IS HIT AMIDSHIPS

Storm of Sunday Sweeps Through
Central Part But is Not Felt
in North and South.

TELEPHONE LINES DAMAGED

Home of George W. Guffin in North
Morgan Street Struck—City
Light Plant Also Damaged.

Probably the worst thunder storm of the season hit Rush county amidships Sunday afternoon. It was truly amidships because there was no severe lightning and hail in the extreme northern and extreme southern part of the county.

But in central Rush county the hail did great damage to growing crops and the wind was an able assistant in wrecking havoc and causing great losses to farmers.
Very little damage from lightning was reported even though it appeared to be the worst this year. George W. Guffin's house in this city was the only thing reported struck.

The high wind and lightning caused the telephone linemen a lot of trouble today. A line in East Eleventh street and extending outside the corporation was down and almost cut Rushville off from telephonic communication with the northern half of the county.

The Mays exchange was in operation and it was found that there was a very light rain there and no hail Milroy and New Salem were the only exchanges in southern Rush county which could be reached today. There was no hail or lightning display at all in the Milroy vicinity and at New Salem the rain was light. The Arlington exchange was out of commission. Neither could Orange, Raleigh or Falmouth be reached by telephone.

The home of George W. Guffin, 914 North Morgan street was struck by lightning Sunday afternoon. During the storm that passed over this city.
Considerable damage resulted but the house was not fired. A large amount of plastering was knocked off and the chimney was badly damaged. The bolt seemed to run down the chimney while none of the occupants of the house was injured they were badly frightened and more or less stunned. Mrs. Wood, a daughter of Mrs. Guffin's was in a wardrobe upstairs at the time the lightning hit. The flue forms one of the walls of the wardrobe and the plastering fell all around. Mrs. Wood but she escaped uninjured.

As a result of the storm yesterday, a wire was burned in the state-or of the field coil generator at the Electric Light Plant and it will necessarily be 2 or 3 days before complete repairs can be made. Men have been busy all day in an effort to repair the damage, but it was found that additional equipment would have to be sent for and on this account the repairing will be delayed. In the meantime, the consumers are urged to be as economical as possible with their electric current, especially after 5 o'clock in the evening.

John M. Cavitt, a native of Rush county and a resident here until 1902, died last Saturday at Galata, Montana. Mr. Cavitt was the father of Sheriff Vorhees-Cavitt and was well known here. Mr. Cavitt was 76 years old and was born and reared in Rush county. He had been ill about one week suffering from penumonia. He is survived by two other children, John Cavitt, Jr., and Mrs.
Thomas Mills. The remains will be brought here for burial but the time of arrival is not known.

HELD FOR SELLING QUART OF WHISKEY

Elmer Littrell Charged With Sale to
Lige Pea, Demands Change of
Venue in Mayor's Court.

TRIAL IS SET FOR FRIDAY

Elmer Littrell was arraigned before Mayor Bebout this morning on a charge of selling one quart of whiskey to Lige Pea. Littrell entered a plea of not guilty, asked for a change of venue and gave bond in the sum of $75. Mayor Bebout has not yet appointed the special judge to try the case, but granted the change. The trial has been set for Friday morning at nine o'clock.

Littrell was arrested Saturday night by Chief Yakey after the alleged transaction had taken place.
As he was entering the jail Littrell broke away from Yakey and made a dash for his liberty. Yakey drew his revolver and called to Littrell to halt. Yakey was just on the verge of firing when Littrell stopped.

Little of the details of the sale were given out, the police preferring that they should come to light with the trial.

RICHMOND FIRM WAS LOW BIDDER

Was Expected Commissioners Would Give Geers & Behringer Contract For Court House Roof.

2 KINDS WERE SPECIFIED

The firm of Geers and Behringer of Richmond submitted the low bid before the county commissioners this afternoon for the proposed new roof for the court house. This firm's bid called for a tile roof at a total cost of $12,000 and $11,886 for a roof built with asbestos shingles. The commissioners had not awarded the contract at a late hour but were giving the bid of the Richmond firm consideration and it was expected that the award would be made for the tile roof.

The firm of Ralph R. Reeder of Indianapolis bid $13,983 for a tile roof. The William G. Andrews, Decorating company of Clinton, Ia., submitted a bid of $4,700 for the repair of the old roof. This is the firm that hoped to repair the present roof and then land the contract for decorating the court house. In this way it expected to use up the appropriation for $15,000.

FOURTH HERE TO BE A BIT QUIET

Ordinance Prohibiting Fireworks
Passed in 1915 is Still in Effect
in Rushville.

PROVIDES FINES OF $10 TO $25

State Fire Marshall Calls Attention
to Reduction in Loss of Life
and Property Loss.

Tomorrow will little resemble the Fourth of July in Rushville as far as noise is concerned. The old fashioned Fourth of July in which noise played the leading part is passed as far as Rushville is concerned.

The ordinance prohibiting the sale and firing of all kinds of fireworks is still in force and will likely remain so for years to come as there are not many who would care to go back to the old days. About as near to fireworks as the kids will get this year are the paper balloons.
This form of fireworks, if it can be classed as such is not under the ban.
In fact the paper balloons are about the only thing offered for sale at any of the local stores with a Fourth of July touch.

This will be the second year that the city has been without fireworks.
The ordinance provides a penalty for the sale as well as the firing of the fireworks and there is no chance of importing any fireworks and escape the law. Along in February, 1915 the city council conceived of a "safe and sane" Fourth of July and passed the ordinance. The ordinance is similar to ones passed in many cities.

The ordinance provides "that the firing, discharging and use of all crackers, rockets, torpedoes, roman candles and other fireworks or substances designed and intended for pyrotechnical display and all pistols, guns, canes, cannon, and other appliances using blank cartridges or caps containing chlorate of potash mixture are hereby prohibited."

The ordinance provides that the sale shall be prohibited and provides a fine of not less than $10 or more than $25 if any of the provisions are violated. In case of the dealers, each day they shall sell or harbor fireworks shall constitute a separate offense.

Mayor Bebout and the police will see that the law is obeyed. The ordinance provides that the only way fireworks can be fired here is by a public display and then under the auspices of some person competent to handle the display. The consent of the council must first be obtained before a public display of fire works will be permitted.

"Indiana's fire record on the Fourth of July in the last three years shows conclusively that fire prevention prevents," says the state fire marshal. He called attention to the following facts as set forth in the report of the department's activities for 1915:

"The number of fire losses from fireworks used in Independence Day celebration has decreased each year since the establishment of the office.
The figures are 49 in 1913, 28 in 1914 and 10 in 1915. The number for 1915 includes those caused by fireworks on Saturday preceding and Monday succeeding Sunday, the Fourth of July."

This result is brought about by the exercise of greater care by individuals and by the stricter supervision over the sale and use of fireworks by municipalities of the state.
Each year the department has asked special "watchfulness" from fire chiefs, police superintendents, and other city officials by letter, and

BRITISH GAINS BEING CHECKED

Arrival of German Reinforcement

Temporarily Holds up Allied
Drive For Present.

FRENCH CONTINUE THOUGH

Score Most Important Success of
Twenty-Four Hours in Taking
3-Mile Enemy Trench.

(By United Press.)
London, July 3.—The arrival of German reinforcements has temporarily checked the British gains north of the Somme except at one point but the French continue to smash back the German line south of the river.

These facts are indicated in the official dispatches from the German and French war offices this afternoon and by French dispatches from headquarters of the British army.

The French last night scored the most important success of the last 24 hours of the great allied offensive.
They battered in the German lines on a three mile front directly south of the Somme.

London, July 3.—Under a blazing July sun the allied armies are pushing on across the rolling farm lands of the Somme region today in what is rapidly developing into the greatest battle in the history of the world.

The fighting not only is growing more intense with the arrival of German reserves but threatens to spread along the whole of the 110-mile front from the Somme to the sea.

The British artillery has been pounding the German line in Flanders with the most intense fire for 48 hours, said a Rotterdam dispatch today. The sound of ships' guns has been heard along the Flanders coast.
Supposedly British monitors have joined in the mighty symphony of artillery whose rumble may even be heard across the channel in London.

FRENCH TAKE VILLAGE.

(By United Press.)
Paris, July 3.—In a brilliant night attack that threw the Germans back on a wide front, French troops last night captured the village of Her-becourt, advancing to within five miles of the heart of Peronne, one of the immediate objectives of the allied offensive. The advance was made on a three-mile front.

by the President.

PERSHING LOGICAL CHOICE

(By United Press.)
Washington, July 3.—Brigadier-General Albert L. Miles, head of the militia division of the army, was nominated today by President Wilson to be major general.

Though Miles was the ranking brigadier-general many persons in the war department was expecting General Pershing would be the next major-general because of his work in Mexico.

Col. George Dodd, who established a record by keeping the advance column of the punitive expedition in Mexico, was promoted to brigadier-general.

Mrs. Green, who was in her 83d

It was reported a week ago that she suffered a stroke of apoplexy in March. This was declared to be slight however and Mrs. Green's physician said she was doing as well as could be expected considering her advanced years.

(By United Press.)
Washington, July 3.—For the moment the United States government will not press Carranza to answer its demands for a statement as to his attitude on Mexican-American relations. The state department announced this today, saying the situation is in status quo for the present, especially in view of the relief of tension by Carranza's release of prisoners at Chihuahua City.

CENSORSHIP LID IS PUT ON TODAY

Arrival of Troop Trains Along Border is Shrouded in Mystery
and Officers Are Silent.

SPIES ARE BEING WATCHED

Camping of Lid is Done for Purpose
of Preventing Carranzistas
Knowing Truth.

(By United Press.)
San Antonio, Texas, July 3.—A veil of censorship has been drawn over the movement of national guardsmen by General Funston on orders from the war department. Arrival of troops trains in this and other cities near the border is shrouded in mystery which bids fair to continue until all of these state troops ordered south under call have reached their stations.

The Seventh Illinois infantry arrived here today and went into camp at Fort Houston. The guardsmen are standing the heat better and no illness has been reported.

(By United Press.)
Columbus, N. M., July 3.—Militia movements were taking place along the border today under the eyes of spies and secret service agents of the Carranza government, it was believed. Explaining the strict censorship which does not permit mention of the regiments of positions of national guardsmen detained here,
Captain Van Schaick said:

"The censorship of militia movements was inaugurated to prevent Carranza agents on this side of the border obtaining information."

During the night long troop trains passed through here distributing militiamen to many points. Schaick, together with several American secret service men is watching the activity of several suspected Carranza spies.

IS STILL GAME OF "WATCHFUL WAITING."

(By United Press.)
Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., July 3.—It was still a game of "watchful waiting" today at Camp Ralston where the Indiana National Guard is mobilizing. Captain John J. Toffey, chief mustering officer, could give little information as to when the Indiana troops would start for the border.

Leaves of absence were being refused members of the artillery battalion and 50 additional cars were placed on the Fort Harrison siding, indicating that National Guard officers were expecting orders to move any time.

CARRANZA REPLY IS NOT READY FOR DELIVERY.

(By United Press.)
Mexico City, July 3.—The foreign office today was unable to make any definite statement as to when Carranza's reply to the United States note would be presented.
Friday it was stated upon apparently reliable authority that the reply was practically completed and would be delivered within a few hours. The following day the statement was made that the note probably would be ready by Monday night. Today the best information was that the final draft would not be made for several days.

ALONG ENTIRE BORDER

(By United Press.)
El Paso, Texas, July 3.—Militia men swarmed along the entire lengths of the Mexican border today ready for service. New camps are being built from Brownsville to El Paso.

MARKET NEWS SERVICE BEGINS

Field Men of Department of Agriculture Collect Information on Perishable Crops

ARE ALSO DISTRIBUTING IT

Data Deals With Shipments and is Regarded as of Immense Value by Shippers

Washington, July 1.—Field men of the Office of Markets and Rural Organization have left Washington to inaugurate the Department of Agriculture's Market News Service for perishable crops this year. Branch offices have been established in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, and Kansas City, to collect and distribute information in regard to marketing conditions. Other men are stationed in the producing sections in Florida, Louisiana and Texas where onions, tomatoes and strawberries are already being shipped in carload lots to the big markets.

By collecting in this way information concerning conditions in producing districts and marketing centers, the Market News Service of the Department of Agriculture, is designed to aid both shippers of and dealers in perishable crops. The information collected is sent out free by telegraph to all those who are sufficiently interested to pay the telegraph charges and by mail to those who do not care to incur this expense, but have a good reason for wishing the reports. Each of the field men in the marketing and producing centers acts as a distributor of this information and, in addition, it is sent out direct from Washington.

The first reports for this season have been sent out. They will deal with carload shipments, receipts and general conditions for the onion, tomato, and strawberry crops. Other crops will follow as the season advances, the service being designed to include a total of 16 altogether. In the opinion of marketing specialists this work, which was begun last year, has already demonstrated its value in preventing the glutting of markets, in securing more profitable distribution for perishable crops, and in avoiding delay and waste through unnecessary diversions of carload shipments enroute.

CARRIES COIN WHOSE FLIP NAMED PORTLAND, OREGON.

(By United Press.)
San Francisco, Cal., July 3.—As a pocket-piece, F. W. Pettygrove of San Francisco carries a copper cent, dated 1835, which was flipped to decide whether Portland, Ore., should be named "Portland" or "Boston."

It was Mr. Pettygrove's father and Amos L. Lovejoy who did the flipping.

It happened in the summer of 1845. Each man held out for the principal city of his native state.

"Best two out of three," said Lovejoy.

First it fell "Portland." Then it fell "Boston."

On the third toss Portland, Oregon, became the namesake of Portland, Maine. But Portland, Oregon, has long since outgrown her god-mother in size.

Fourth of July Tetanus.

Back in 1905 there were 104 deaths in the United States from Fourth of July tetanus, this figure representing about the average annual mortality. In 1914, as a result of the institution of better prophylactic treatment by physicians and widespread agitation for a safe and sane Fourth, the number was reduced to 3. A year ago the U. S. Public Health Service expected and predicted that every youngster in the United States would be safe from this disease, basing its estimate on what had already been accomplished. When the returns came in it was found that a boy down in Maine had been injured, developed tetanus and died. That single fatality was only one among several hundred thousand occurring in the United States during 1915 but it resulted from Fourth of July tetanus or lock-jaw, a preventable disease, and was therefore an unnecessary death. The loss of this boy makes it necessary

Denison, Texas. — "After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get my medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go." — Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ill, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.

The blank cartridge wound is the great cause of Fourth of July tetanus, but injuries from crackers and firearms are at times responsible. When driven into the tissues the wadding carries with it innumerable bacilli. If these be tetanus bacilli the poisonous product of toxins resulting from their multiplication produce the disease. Tetanus bacilli thrive only in the absence of oxygen. It is for this reason that the physician enlarges the wound of entrance and after removing all foreign material dresses the injury in such a manner that development of the organisms is inhibited. The order to accomplish this it is usually necessary to administer an anesthetic. Antitetanic serum is of great value as a prophylactic and it should invariably be given in injuries of this character.

Parents should realize that Fourth of July tetanus is easy to prevent but extremely difficult to cure, the disease being attended with a mortality of more than 95 per cent. No blank cartridge wound is too trivial to receive careful medical attention. However slight the injury may appear summon a competent physician who will at once institute the necessary prophylactic measures. Reliance upon home treatment may prove disastrous and result in the needless sacrifice of life.

A Leader Learning.

On the eve of a political campaign, President Wilson, referring to the European war says: "We are participants, whether we would or not, in the life of the world. The interests of all nations are our own also. We are partners with the rest. What affects mankind is inevitably our affair as well as the affair of the nation of Europe and Asia."

But in his address to Congress, December 8, 1914, when he declared that the country had been misinformed on the subject of preparedness, Mr. Wilson, advocating a "citizenry trained and accustomed to arms," said: "More than this, proposed at this time, permit me to say, would mean merely that we had lost our self-possession, that we had been thrown off our balance by a war with which we have nothing to do, whose causes can not touch us."

Commenting on the fact that the Mayor of Connorsville has announced that he will marry any old maids and bachelors who desire to have the knot tied free of charge during the centennial next week, the Muncie Press says that not so many are caught by such fascinating promises because people have learned nowadays that marrying is just like buying an automobile—it's not the first cost but the upkeep.

Because he resembles President Wilson so closely, the Rev. Arthur S. Henderson has determined he will not leave his home town of Topeka, Kansas, until Wilson ceases to be a celebrity, and if he keeps his determination, he may have to spend the rest of his days in Topeka because even former presidents may be called celebrities.

President Wilson criticises Republicans because they are "backward looking men." It is no wonder that a Democrat dislikes anyone who looks back upon the record of the Wilson administration.

PULPITS TAKE UP CAMPAIGN

From Many Churches Sunday Doctrine of Preparedness is Preached to the Masses.

KNOWN AS CITIZENSHIP DAY

Bureau of Naturalization Has Had 200,000 Candidates For Citizenship Since October.

Washington, July 3.—Throughout the country, from the pulpits of churches of all denominations, the doctrine of Citizenship Preparedness was proclaimed yesterday. The clergy of the United States, with remarkable unanimity, adopted the appeal of the Bureau of Naturalization of the U. S. Department of Labor that a citizenship sermon be delivered on the morning of July 2 of this year, a date selected because of its close proximity to Independence Day, which means so much to all American citizens. The gospel of good citizenship was enunciated in cities and hamlets, to large and prosperous congregations and small, struggling bands of worshippers alike—a universal proclamation from the pulpit of the necessity of instilling American ideals and patriotism in the minds of foreign residents.

It is the desire of the Bureau of Naturalization that one Sunday in each year be set aside as Citizenship Sunday, on which will be preached at the morning service in every church in the country a sermon on citizenship. This proposition has been placed before the churches of all denominations, and the responses to this feature of the Bureau's activities have been highly gratifying and indicative of the establishment of such a day as a permanent institution. It was with a realization that the churches could aid materially in forwarding the good citizenship movement and inspires to immediate and aggressive action communities which have not already joined this great educational movement, that the Bureau of Naturalization made this appeal, and the results show a pronounced success.

In approximately 650 cities and towns, located in 45 States of the Union, the public school authorities, in co-operation with the Bureau of Naturalization of the U. S. Department of Labor, established evening schools for the instruction of their foreign-born population. In all of these cities and towns the intention is to reopen the night schools at the beginning of the fall term. Advice have been received from other places where, for one reason or another, they have as yet been unable to join in this movement, that the public school authorities have determined to open night schools for alien instruction at the beginning of the next scholastic year.

Great results have already been accomplished the greater are expected. The Bureau of Naturalization since the 1st of last October has sent the names of approximately 200,000 candidates for citizenship and their wives to the public school authorities of the country. It has also sent personal letters to all of these to induce them to enter the public schools. It has prepared an Outline Course in Citizenship, thousands of copies of which have been sent to public school teachers. It has also prepared a Syllabus of the Naturalization Law, which it has sent out, with copies of preliminary naturalization forms, to aid teachers in the instruction of candidates for citizenship. The co-operation of the public schools with the National Government has come to stay, and the next scholastic year will show a tremendous increase all over the country.

The Bureau of Naturalization has perfected its plan for a citizenship convention of the public school teachers, superintendents and other prominent educators of the United States, which will be held in this city during the week beginning July 10 for the purpose of exhibiting the results of the work of the foreigners in the night schools throughout the

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

Barnabas C. Hobbs.

Barnabas C. Hobbs receives a place among Indiana's hundred great for his work in education. The State Normal school at Terre Haute owes much to Hobbs, who was a member of its first board of trustees.

As president of Earlham college from 1843 to 1851 Hobbs made another contribution to the state of Indiana which was increased during his three years as superintendent of public instruction from 1868 to 1871. As head of the state school system Hobbs provided for the education of colored children and was among the first to inaugurate graded schools.

Hobbs was born near Salem, Ind., and was liberally educated in the private schools at Cincinnati College.

WATSON SPEAKS AT COLORED MEMORIAL

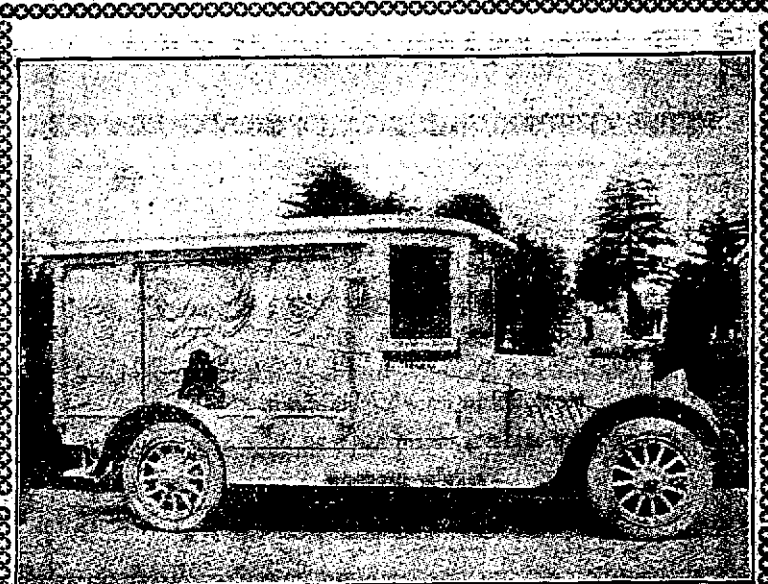

Lauds Colored Troops For Part They Took in Recent Battle at Carrizal, Mexico.

The valor of negro troopers in the fight between Carranza soldiers and American cavalrymen at Carrizal was praised last night at a memorial service for those who died in that fight, held at Allen Temple, Broadway, near Tenth street, says the Indianapolis Star. James E. Watson, nominee for United States senator, and the Rev. E. A. Clark, pastor of Allen Chapel, were the speakers. Garley Brewer, negro editor, presided.

Both speakers praised the negro troopers for the part they took in the fight, and declared that their valor will have a place of honor in the nation's history. Mr. Watson declared that those who died in the unprovoked attack were murdered by the Carranza soldiers. He referred not only to the Carrizal incident, but of the bravery of negro soldiers generally, being familiar with the conduct of troops in the Tenth Cavalry and in the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth infantry regiment. The Rev. Mr. Clark spoke along similar lines.

The meeting was the first memorial that has been held in the fight. The pastor of Allen Chapel urged the necessity for colored citizens to respond to the call when word is sent for men to go to the colors and referred to the importance of patriotic action on the part of all citizens.

GOOD GRUB IS GIVEN SOLDIERS

Menu at Fort Benjamin Harrison Satisfies Even the "Rookies"

—Costs 25 cents a Day

VERY FEW KICKS ABOUT FOOD

Folks Back Home Don't Forget Boys and Boxes Arrive by Parcel Post Every Day

A DAY'S MENU AT FORT HARRISON

Breakfast—Bacon, fried potatoes, molasses bread and olomargerine.

Dinner—Boiled beef, tomatoes, potatoes, bread and olomargerine.

Supper—Hash, beans, with tomato sauce, and bread.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, July 3.—Twenty-five and ninety-nine hundredths cents—that is what it costs to feed each militiaman at Fort Harrison one day. And the men, used to the cooking of mother or wife, are not kicking.

"Beans! Yes, we have beans occasionally but not often," said one "rookie" when asked if the state of Indiana had yet been able to secure any of the traditional diet for army men. "I am glad," continued the "rookie," "that there is a war in Europe that has consumed pretty nearly all of last year's bean crop. Maybe Carranza will decide to stop his raids and we will be home before another crop is harvested."

"Mess," the soldier term for food is the least of the guardman's troubles. Very few have any kicks to make about the food that is being handed out. But practically all of the companies have a company fund, raised by the citizens in the town from which they came, which they use to piece out the 25 cent a day fare. Ice cream, lemonade, butter, pie, cake and fresh fruit are some of the things that find their way to the company tables by way of the company fund.

The company from Fort Wayne, one of the largest companies in camp, has a fund of nearly $1,200, subscribed by Fort Wayne citizens after ex-State Senator Stephen Fleming had started it with a subscription of $200.

Another source of food are the boxes from home. Every visitor to camp carries out a heavy basket and carries home an empty basket. Food comes by parcel post and by express. A guardsman in Company I, the Indiana University company, expressed a desire for cherry pie the other day. The next day he received eight cherry pies, gifts from his co-ed friends.

Militiamen from small towns are often heard to express a wish for a drink of water from the old town pump and out of the old common dipper, which the last Indiana legislature last sent into history. The water pipes at the camp are laid on top of the ground and on a hot sunny day the cooks need not heat the water in which they wash dishes.

At Camp Raleigh headquarters today it was estimated that it is costing approximately one thousand dollars to feed the 4,000 men in camp. Officers pay for their own food.

PICNIC IS POSTPONED.

The picnic of the Rush County Bar association, scheduled for this afternoon, was postponed until later in the week. The lawyers did not like to take a chance on the weather so they called the event off.

MID-WEST MOTOR BOAT RACES OPEN

Many of Contestants and Delegates

Journey to Scene by Cruising up Mississippi.

OVER 100 BOATS ENTERED

St. Paul, Minn., July 3.—A large number of the boatmen contestants in the races and delegates to the meeting of the Mississippi Valley Power Boat association who arrived here today for the opening of the meet, made the trip from their home ports to the regatta city by cruising up the Mississippi river. The many tributaries to the Mississippi served as good pathways for the boats—and overland shipping difficulties were eliminated.

Races began today and activities will continue for a week. On Wednesday the annual meeting will be held.

Delegates from seven states, representing nearly fifty motor boat clubs with a membership of 8,000 are here.

About a hundred speed boats are darting about in the Mississippi river awaiting the word to start in the big ninth annual regatta of the Mississippi Valley Power Boat association.

"Miss Detroit," a cup winner from the Michigan city whose name it boasts, went 30 miles this afternoon against "Miss Minneapolis," a boat of exactly the same dimensions. Both were guaranteed for 55 miles an hour. Both were built by the same concern. "St. Paul," which was to represent this city in the race, was not completed in time for use.

COLLEGE RIVALRY EVEN IN WAR TIME

Indiana and Purdue Companies Carry Rivalry to Fort Benjamin Harrison—I. U. Has Band.

SONGS AND YELLS GIVEN

(By United Press.)

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, July 3.—College rivalry lasts even in "war-time." The rivalry between the different regiments or between the various companies of the Indiana national guard does not begin to compare with the rivalry between members of the guard from the two state universities—Indiana and Purdue.

There are more than 120 Indiana University students or graduates in in Company I and in the Second Regiment band. Battery B. of the artillery battalion is composed of 160 Purdue students.

Scarcely an evening passes in which the "Old Indiana" is not answered by "Hail Purdue." Then will come the Purdue yell to be answered by the Indiana "series." In the matter of songs the band attempts to be neutral playing both Purdue and Indiana songs.

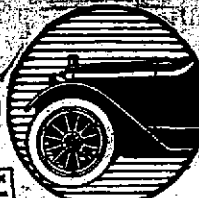

A parade with more than six hundred I. U. supporters in line marched across the space separating the infantry camp from the artillery battery one evening.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS

It used to be the custom—and may be now on remote farms—for the housewife to use her own knowledge, good sense and judgment, in dealing with sickness in the family before sending for the doctor, unless in serious emergencies. After that, when there was no immediate danger she would talk with her neighbors, women who had had experience with sickness.

Any woman who suffers from ailments peculiar to her sex will do well to ask her neighbors. She should easily find one who has used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Just ask her about it! (Advertisement)

LAW'S WOULD DO AWAY WITH PESTIFEROUS FLY.

It would appear, from what we know of the life history of the common housefly and from what remedial experimentation has already been carried on, that it is perfectly feasible for cities and towns to so greatly reduce the numbers of these annoying and dangerous insects as to render them of comparatively slight account. The health departments of most cities have the authority to abate nuisances dangerous to health, and it is easy for the health authorities of any city to formulate rules concerning the construction and care of stables and the keeping and disposal of manure which, if enforced, will do away with the housefly nuisance.

Every year brings forth new and varied diversions, tempting to those wishing to spend the holiday of the Fourth in the very jolliest way. So very many places are there to go this year and so many new motors to go in that very few cling to the old-fashioned picnic, but have planned all sorts of novel trips. The picnics which have been planned promise to be ideal ones, with the consent of the weather man, thanks to the congeniality of the groups and the choice of the country spot where the picnickers will spend the day.

The members of the Wi-Hub club and their families are to have an all day affair at the Innis cottage, west of the city. There will be about 30 in the party altogether.

Tomorrow marks only the start of a merry party for another group, when at the Green Cottage on the river northeast of the city they spend the Fourth and the five days thereafter. In this party are the Misses Lois Reeves, Esther Anderson, Dorothy Mulno, Dorothy Sparks, Kathryn Giffin and Kathryn Wooden. Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Sparks will act as chaperones.

Honoring her attractive guest, Miss Josephine MacNeill, of Winchester, Ky., Miss Beatrice Reeves is entertaining tomorrow at her home in North Main street, with a pitch-in dinner and slumber party following. About ten young ladies will compose the party.

The Centennial at Connorsville with its continuous program and fireworks celebration at night is luring a number of people for a part or all of the day. Others are planning to motor to Ft. Benjamin Harrison, some to Cincinnati, and still others will take advantage of the beautiful drives and motor to Brookville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Hall of Raleigh are entertaining tomorrow with a family dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Young and son Donald, and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Behr and son, William, are planning to motor to Cincinnati to spend the Fourth.

FAMILY DINNER.

Justice Stafford Writes Poem For Miss Margaret Wilson Giving His Views.

FIGHT FOR COMMUNITY FORUM

Make wide the doorway of the school
Around whose sill the millions wait.

The cradle of the common rule,
The forum of a stronger state.

Make broad the bar, and big appear
The questions clamorous to be tried,
And let the final judges hear,
Themselves, the causes they decide.

Write hold the text for age to read
The lesson not discerned by youth;
And raise the altar of a creed
Whose only article is Truth.

Though fair and dear the ancient mold
Wherein the burning thought was east,

Pour not the New World's glowing gold
Unto the patterns of the past.

Whatever channels lead apart
The currents of the lives of men,
The blood that left the Common Heart
Shall leap with common pulse again.

Wendall Phillips Stafford.
Washington, July 30.—Miss Margaret Wilson can feel she has the law with her in fight to establish community forums throughout the country.

The above poem read by her at a forum meeting here had that significance, since it was written by Justice Wendell Phillips Stafford of the District Supreme Court.

This court appoints the very school board that has refused to allow the use of District Public schools as meeting places. In a way, the learned Justice administered a rebuke to the school board.

HELEN KELLER MAKES APPEALS FOR WAR RELIEF.

Helen Keller has made the following appeal for war relief:

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America has sent broadcast through the land appeals for systematic and continuous giving to the war relief funds in this country.

No victims of war need our help more than the men blinded in battle whose affliction will end only with death. Nor can any derive more permanent benefit from immediate aid.

The B. F. B. Permanent Blind Relief War Fund, which is to be the A. B. F. B. (American, British, French, Belgian) if we are unhappily forced into war with Mexico, is one of the many agencies that benefit from the Federal Council's appeal.

I came to New York as the guest of this fund. I visited its booths at the Allied Bazaar and its headquarters at 590 Fifth Avenue. I saw for myself the great work the B. F. B. is doing, and felt the fine Christian spirit that inspires it.

I met a man who had been blinded by a shell. He was not downcast, but enthusiastically at work. For the fund had taught him, as it plans to teach thousands of others, a gainful trade.

When I saw him, I thought of his unfortunate fellows, struck blind in an unknown, black world, useless, their lives and strength a burden to them. And I thought of my sympathetic, kindly countrymen, and felt that they would be glad to help the B. F. B. restore to these helpless men lives of happy usefulness.

As an officer of this fund it gives me the greatest satisfaction to know that the entire expenses of the organization are defrayed by the executive committee, so that all contributions are going directly to aid the blind.

I appeal to the people through the Federal Council in behalf of the sufferers in all countries—little children, widows and the maimed and crippled victims of war. Their need is urgent, aid is precious; we cannot give enough. I appeal to all Americans to make their charity broad and universal, and to give bountifully.

But most of all, I feel the misfortunes of the war's blind. And I ask your help especially for them.

Very Truly Yours,
(Signed) HELEN KELLER.

Pathe opens the five "act" Gold Rooster Play "The Love Trail" at the Gem today. It is adapted from Richard Dehan's novel "The Dop Doctor" and is said to be a very entertaining film production. Fred Paul and the beautiful little English actress Miss Agnes Glynn are featured. It is a romance of the English-Boer war and Pathe guarantees it to be one of the best of their Gold Rooster Plays. Tomorrow matinee and night the first episode of the great Universal serial "Peg O' the Ring" will be shown. Grace Cunard and Francis Ford, the stars of two preceding successful Universal serials, namely, "Lucile Love" and "The Broken Coin" are featured. It is a story of circus life in which wild animals, and the like, are shown to excellent advantage.

The Princess will show the feature picture "Barbara Frietche" for the program tonight. It is a thrilling drama in five reels in which Little Mary Miles Minter is featured. The picture was adopted from Whittier's immortal poem of the same name and the play by Clyde Fitch. The picture tells a thrilling story of Civil War days and in addition to Mary Miles Minter there appears in the case Mrs. Whiffen, Guy Combs, Anne Q. Nilsson and others. Tomorrow, matinee and night the Princess offers the feature "The Yellow Passport" in which Clara Kimball Young is featured. The persecution of a beautiful and noble-spirited girl by the Russian secret police forms the basis of the plot of "The Yellow Passport." In one scene there is a thrillingly realistic reproduction of the Jewish massacre at Kiev, Russia, by Cossacks.

SOME FLY DON'T'S.

Don't allow flies in your house. Don't permit them near your food, especially milk.

Don't buy foodstuffs where flies are tolerated.

Don't have feeding places where flies can load themselves with eggs from typhoid or dysenteric patients.

Don't allow your fruits and confections to be exposed to the swarms of flies.

Don't let flies crawl over the baby's mouth and swarm upon the nipple of its nursing bottle.

Clean Up your premises inside and out. Then see that the community does the same.

Strike at the root of the evil. The housefly breeds in horse manure, kitchen offal and the like. Dispose of these materials in such a way that the housefly cannot propagate.

Screen all windows and doors, and insist that your grocer, butcher, baker and every one from whom you buy foodstuffs does the same. There is more health in a house well screened than in many a doctor's visit.

THE MOSQUITO THAT HELPED RUIN ROME IS AFTER YOU TOO.

(By Samuel G. Dixon, M. D., LL. D., Pennsylvania Commissioner of Health.)

Malaria is said to have hastened the downfall of Rome.

The mosquitoes which transmitted it were more deadly to the inhabitants of the Imperial city than their barbarian enemies. Much also has been written of similar injury to Greece in yet earlier times.

At least two diseases are carried by certain species of mosquitoes; malaria and yellow fever. All species are disagreeable pests.

Have you unwittingly permitted mosquitoes to breed about your house or grounds? Even one old tomato can half filled by the spring rains makes an ideal breeding ground. It is surprising how many hidden pools one can find around a place if you really go on a hunt.

Not infrequently drain pipes become clogged and then tin roofs and gutters afford an unsuspected breeding place for thousands of mosquitoes.

Communities that suffer from these pests should co-operate to campaign effectively against them.

Even the smallest adjacent pools should be filled up or ditched and drained. If these are too large to be filled they should be treated with petroleum. This floats atop the water and kills the mosquito larvae by shutting off the atmosphere. When the wind causes a movement of the water which breaks up the oil coating it must be re-oiled. Swamps can be similarly treated.

A survey should be made of all premises. Rain water barrels should be covered. Tin cans or discarded vessels on rubbish piles should be perfected, smashed flat or buried.

SHOT WITH OUR AMMUNITION

American Troops Who Met Death in Mexico Killed With "Made in America" Bullets.

MUNITIONS WERE SHIPPED

Millions of Dollars Worth of Ammunition and Firearms Supplied to the Mexicans.

Washington, July 3.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington Headquarters:

"Shot with ammunition 'Made in America'. Such was the fate of the American troopers, who met their death at the hands of the Carranzistas. 'Peace, Prosperity, and Preparedness' is the campaign slogan of the Democratic party. And 'fair-eyed peace' was killed at Carrizal. It was the logical outcome of the most vacillating policy recorded in the annals of American history. Carranza dared because Wilson dared not.

"Prosperity?" It is soaked in the blood of millions of Europe's slain, and Mexico upon whom now we war has added her mite to it. Four billion dollars worth of exports have been sent to Europe during the 20 months of war, and 31 classes of those exports, indispensable in modern warfare, made up over 50 per cent of the total. That is Democratic prosperity.

"Preparedness? For three years this country has been on the verge of war with Mexico; for two years Europe has been running mad. The administration, when taxed with its lethargy in regard to preparedness, replied through its chief spokesman, Woodrow Wilson, 'The country has been misinformed. We have not been negligent of National defense'. Yet, today we have no aeroplanes for scout duty in Mexico, and aeroplanes were invented in the United States. We have not sufficient horses for our cavalry, and America is the greatest horse-raising country in the world. Our machine guns are pitifully few in number, and the machine gun is an American invention. And on these three factors must we rely most heavily in a war with Mexico.

"We are also told that there is a dearth of ammunition for our troops. But what have we done for Mexico in the meantime? On March 14, 1912, President Taft placed an embargo on ammunition and guns going into Mexico from the United States. On February 3, 1914, this embargo was taken off by President Wilson. On April 21, 1914, at the time of the Vera Cruz occupation, Mr. Wilson restored the embargo, and on September 9, 1914, he changed his mind and again lifted it. On October 21, 1915, when the A. B. C. Conference was in session, or soon thereafter, he again restored the embargo on ammunition and guns consigned to everyone in Mexico but Carranza and his followers. This was done to aid the irreconcilable Carranza against Wilson's old ally, Villa.

"During the fiscal year 1914, Mexico purchased of us $750,000 worth of cartridges, 5,560,000 pounds of dynamite, 129,000 pounds of gunpowder, $488,000 worth of firearms, and $69,000 worth of other explosives. During the fiscal year 1915, the Mexicans were supplied with $3,000,000 worth of American cartridges, 2,400,000 pounds of dynamite, 36,000 pounds of gunpowder, $1,280,000 worth of firearms, and $116,250 worth of other explosives. On April 11, at a time when the Mexican situation was most acute, 332,000 pounds of ammunition left Laredo, Texas, consigned to Carranza, and on April 14, a dispatch from Douglas, Arizona stated: 'The State Department has issued a permit to the de facto government of Mexico to pass 1,000,000 pounds of small ammunition across the line to Agua Prieta, during the next few days. The ammunition is now en route to the border. These are two instances which were reported by the press, and there is no telling how many more escaped notice.

PROHI PARTY TO "GET TOGETHER"

Conference Called For St. Paul July 18 at Which Time Proposed Action Will be Discussed.

MAY MEAN PASSING AS PARTY

Program Includes Discussion as to Whether Third Party is Necessary to Get Prohibition.

Chicago, July 3.—Leaders of the Prohibition party and members of the committee of sixty which made an unsuccessful attempt to get a Prohibition declaration in the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties, have called a "Get-together" conference, to be held in St. Paul, Minn., July 18, the day preceding the National Prohibition convention.

Fifteen men and women of all political faiths will receive invitations to this conference. The object of the conference is to effect an amalgamation of the moral reform forces of the country into a political party which shall have as its central platform plank national prohibition, but which will also advocate a whole category of governmental reforms and progressive legislation.

The program as announced includes free-for-all discussions relating to prohibition as a dominant issue, whether a third party must be elected in order to obtain prohibition, what name such a party should bear, the possibility of securing action through the various parties now in existence and the relationship of prohibition to other reforms.

Among those who will lead discussions are Hon. E. N. Foss, three times governor of Massachusetts,

The chairman of the conference has not been fully determined upon, the desire being to have for this position a man of national reputation who is not a party prohibitionist. Prominent Progressive leaders are being considered, including Victor Murdock, recent national chairman; Raymond Robins, who was chairman of the Progressive Allen White, noted Progressive leader of Kansas. Former Governor Oswald West of Oregon has also been suggested as Chairman of the get-together conference.
